

LIGHT TOUCH

A central courtyard delivers northern light to every living space in this open home in Victoria, while clever orientation keeps out cold winter winds. Elsewhere, additions such as a laser-cut metal screen and timber wall panel create visual interest.

Shane Couchman Architects, www.shanecouchman.com.au

Australian style

From a rural retreat in Queensland to a seaside abode in Western Australia, we present some of our nation's most eye-catching homes

Words: Jessal Matthews